

Dog Lovers!

Foster an Advanced Service Dog Trainee
and support our Colorado disabled community!

Ivy, in service 11.2014

Contact:

Lyn Manton Krueger
970.376.3934

with Canine Partners of the Rockies, a Denver-based non-profit mobility service dog organization that places all our dogs in Colorado.

Time commitment:

- 3-6 months.
- Transport your dog to Dillon Ridge Marketplace for two hours of advanced training, Monday thru Friday.

Training commitment:

- Public access on a regular basis.
- Learn positive reinforcement training from a certified trainer, for free!

The dogs:

- Dogs that are ready for advanced training are 1 ½-2 years old and have been living and training with a qualified puppy raiser since 8-10 weeks old.

Rewards:

- The satisfaction of participating in the training and placement of a service dog or facility dog for disabled persons in Colorado.

Canine Partners of the Rockies (CaPR), a 501(c)(3) Nonprofit, provides greater independence, improved quality of life, unconditional love and tail-wagging enthusiasm to a fellow Coloradan. Support CaPR today and man's best friend will do the rest.

One person.
One dog.
Partners in life.

